Agenda-3. To rationalize the skill development program in college.

It has been discussed that at least one hands-on training program will be organized for UG and PG students to increase their skills and practical knowledge in each faculty.

Agenda-4. To encourage the faculty to apply for grants for seminars, conferences, and workshops sponsored by various agencies (UGC, ICSSR, ICPR, DST, Higher Education UP, etc.)

The coordinator and co-coordinator discussed the process of applying for seminars, conferences, and workshops from the various agencies by faculties. They also explained the benefits of the seminars, conferences, and workshops for the college and its faculty.

Agenda-5. To attempt any other issues with the permission of the chair.

The chairperson suggested IQAC members to collect feedback form from different stakeholders (parents, students, alumni) for the session 2022-23. The feed back form will be collected in both modes i.e., online through Google form and offline mode. The members of the feedback committee shall analyze the same.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks.
